

We are Family Refugees Then & Now

15th Refugee Educators' Faire
Saturday, March 15, 2003
 at Cosumnes River College, Sacramento
 8:00 to 4:30

Partial list of presenters

Hoang Nguyen. Economics in Vietnam during the war and now, and the economic status of Vietnamese refugees in California today.

Dr. Chinh Le. Health issues in the Sacramento Vietnamese community and in Vietnam.

Lorie Hammond and Lew Saeteurn. Photos and observations of Mien life in a village.

Sue Mote. Child-rearing in Hmong and other cultures.

May Ying Ly. Social work with Hmong families in Sacramento.

Kevin Saephan. Social work with Mien families in Sacramento.

Bao Lo. Hmong teen girls' panel.

Lue Vang. Radio for parent outreach and education (ROC).

Peter Kunstadter. Health education implications for health care professionals and for refugees.

Michael Lokteff. Refugees from the former Soviet Union.

Luda Hedger. Understanding Russian and Ukrainian students.

Shayma Hassouna. Between Arabic and American cultures.

Judy Lewis. Proverbs cross-culturally. The Hmong primer.

George Spindler. Schools, teachers, and cultural transmission.

Laura Sheffield, Kabee Lee, Nadia Kalinyuk, Sharon Kennedy. 4 ideas for involving refugee parents in children's education.

Kao-ly Yang. Socialization of the child in Hmong communities.

Jeanine Pfeiffer. Engaging underrepresented communities and enhancing biocultural diversity education in disadvantaged schools.

Supriya Goswami. Children's literature crossculturally.

Pam Milchrist and Joan Neide. Play in Hmong villages.

Francisco Navarro & Hilda Tonarely. A look at life in Cuba pre-Castro and today.

Cost of $75 will include continental breakfast and box lunch. Student rate is $40 with valid current student ID. For more information email Carol at cduns@cwnet.com or phone the Refugee Educators' Network at (916) 635-6815.

SB 1193 Certificated Staff Development (Buy Back Day)

There will be four workshop sessions, each 1 hour 30 minutes, plus one half hour of information sharing, qualifying participants for 6.5 hours of staff development. _____ Check here: we will send you a "buy-back" packet; prior employing district approval is required.

Name _____
 Affiliation _____
 Address _____
 Phone: _____ Email: _____

Make your purchase orders and checks payable to Refugee Educators' Network, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation. Support of the Refugee Educators' Network is tax deductible. Mail to 10836 Gadsten, Rancho Cordova, CA 95670. Phone (916) 635-6815. Fax (916) 635-0174. Deadline for registration will be March 7, 2003. With registrations after March 7 we cannot guarantee lunch or packet. No refunds. Some workshops have limited seating, and are on a first-come basis. Vegetarian lunches will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis.